OUTSTANDING EAGLE SCOUT AWARD

Judge John Price Scholarship

Judge Price was a longtime Scout and Scouter, and earned his Eagle Scout Award in Troop 10 in Michigan City, Indiana. A retired Marion County Superior Court Judge, John Price served in numerous Scouting roles, including Scoutmaster, North Star District Chair and council board member. He also earned several awards, including the Silver Beaver Award. This $1,000 scholarship was established in celebration of his life and many accomplishments.

Recognizing the best of the year's Eagle Scouts from Crossroads of America Council. Only those Scouts who have attained the rank of Eagle in the previous year are eligible for this recognition given annually at the Council's Gathering of Eagles in March of each year.

Please attach at least one letter of recommendation.
