

MERLE MILLER AWARD
Eagle Scout Project of the Year 2023 (recognized in 2024)
Crossroads of America Council
NOMINATION

The Merle Miller award recognizes an Eagle Scout whose Eagle Scout Service Project is selected as the Crossroads of America council's outstanding project from the year prior to the nomination deadline.

Merle H. Miller (1905-1997) was a prominent attorney and civic leader in the Indianapolis community. He earned the rank of Eagle in 1921 in Indianapolis Boy Scout Troop 82. He served on Camp Belzer staff and was a Firecrafter Minisino. He also served as Chief of the Firecrafter organization. He co-founded the Ice Miller law firm in Indianapolis, and was named a Sagamore of the Wabash in 1989 for his tireless work in support of various organizations, including Scouting. This award continues to be possible each year through the generosity of the Merle Miller family and Ice Miller LLP.

The honoree will also be nominated by the council for the Glenn A. and Melinda W. Adams national Eagle Scout Service Project of the year award. For this reason, all council nominations are to be submitted on the national form (attached). Winners at the regional and national level are recognized with additional scholarships.

Application Deadline for 2023 Eagle Scout: January 31, 2024

Selection Process:

- An Eagle Scout, the Scout's parent, or any registered BSA volunteer (with the Eagle Scout's permission) may submit an Eagle Scout service project for consideration.
- The Scout passed an Eagle Scout board of review in the 2023 calendar year in the Crossroads of America council.
- The nomination consists only of the attached form and a complete duplicate copy of the Eagle Scout Service Project Workbook previously submitted to the council for the Scout's board of review.
- The Crossroads of America council honoree will be selected in February.
- The winning project will then be submitted for regional and national consideration.
- The Merle Miller Eagle Scout Project of the Year award is presented at the annual council awards dinner.
- The accompanying $1,000 college scholarship is paid directly to the institution in which the candidate enrolls.

Evaluation Criteria:

- Project planning
- Effort to develop the project and overcome challenges
- Extent and character of leadership provided by the Scout
- Extent of achievement of the planned result
- Project's impact on the beneficiary and/or on the community at large
- Project's leverage, inspiring others to act
- Originality and lasting impact of the project
- Scope of the work
- Time and materials contributed
- Level of skill employed to complete the project

The nomination form and project workbook attachment may be submitted either in person, by mail, or by email. It must be received not later than January 21, 2024 to be considered.
